

Religious Intersections in Post-Socialist Europe: Between State and Imaginary Borders

08 January 2018, Forum Transregionale Studien (Wallotstr. 14 in 14193 Berlin)

Program

09.45-10.00

Introduction. Andrii Portnov, Iuliia Buyskykh

10.00-12.15

Panel I.: Necessity to be Neighbours: Symbolic Divisions and Coexistence on Post- Violence Terrains

Moderator: Iuliia Buyskykh

10.00-10.45

David Henig (University of Kent)

“Charitable Economies and the Ethics of Immediacy in Postwar Bosnia-Herzegovina”

10.45-11.30

Kamila Baraniecka-Olszewska (Polish Academy of Sciences)

“Silence as a tool of discourse management. Presence of Ukrainian pilgrimages in Kalwaria Paławska sanctuary.”

11.30-11.45

Coffee Break

11.45-12.30

Dirk Schuster (University of Potsdam)

“Religion, race and boundaries. Jews, Christians and divine salvation in Romania until 1944.”

12.30-14.00

Lunch

14.00-16.15

Panel II. Overlapping Religious and Political Challenges in Post-Maidan Ukraine

Moderator: Ewa Dąbrowska

14.00-14.45

Viktoriya Sereda, (Ukrainian Catholic University/Fellow of the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin 2017/18)

“Religious Boundaries and Intersections in post-Euromaidan Ukraine.”

14.45.-15.30

Tetyana Zhurzhenko (Institute for Human Sciences)

“Princes, Saints and other Warriors. Nationalism(s), the Orthodox Church and Monumental Commemoration in the Ukrainian-Russian Borderlands.”

15.30. -16.15

Sabine von Löwis. (Centre for East European and International Studies (ZOiS) / Centre Marc Bloch Berlin)

“Crossing Material and Imaginary Borders of Confessions in Western Ukraine - Local Perspectives Across Time and Space.”

16.15-16.45

Coffee break

17.00-18.30

Roundtable Discussion: ‘Religion as a Source of Conflict and Means of Reconciliation: The Case of Eastern Europe’.

Moderator: Kamila Baraniecka-Olszewska

Speakers: Agnieszka Halemba (University of Warsaw) Regina Elsner (ZOiS), Tsypylma Darieva, (ZOiS), Armina Omerika (Goethe University Frankfurt)